Hogtoberfest 2012

It is that time of the year again. The time of year where the air is a little cooler and football is in season. Oh yeah and Hogtoberfest is here, I know you were waiting for that. This year is no different and the expectations are none the less either.

This year we have the same great location, same great company of the fellow homebrewers and of course the results from the fair competition that I know everyone has entered right?

Mark your calendars for October 14th and be sure to bring your best food and drink as the rest of your beer friend connoisseur will be doing the same.

The annual hogtoberfest will be from noon to 5 and include an excellent choice of smoked meats and buffet style items brought by you and your friends and the best choice of home-brewed beers and meads.

Come enjoy the afternoon in the shade and don't forget a few extra bucks to join in on the raffle for some of the best raffle items of the year.

I'll see you there!

July Meeting Recap

July was the sour month, yes for the beer, not for the attitude. Our president was able to get some great sour beers from up north and share with the group as well as give a big thanks to Chad for all the great “bruery” beers that were shared.

I just hope that next July is just as good, here’s to another great summer

August Meeting Recap

For the August meeting we were lucky enough to hold our meeting at the Full Circle brewery. We were able to have a discussion with the brewer next to the brewing system and hear about their process and what goes into making their fine beers.

Thank you to full circle for supplying us with fine examples of several styles of their house beers.

It was nice to not have to stand in the sun while enjoying some nice homebrew but be inside enjoying some good brew with friends.

Worthog of the year 2012 Competition coming!

You have probably heard but this coming September 22 is the last day for the submission of your American IPA for the Worthog of the year award.

This years Worthog of the year will be the winner of this single category and single entry competition. This is your opportunity to be the Worthog of the year and master brewer in your peers eyes. Imagine your name on this trophy to the right.

In future years there will be a competition on a quarterly basis and the Worthog of the year will be based on the sum of the points accumulated from those competitions. So take advantage of this one time opportunity and get your brew in. See you Saturday!

Bring your submissions to this Saturdays meeting, the category is American IPA, category 14B, you might know them as your favorite beer, maybe you don't but if you have a homebrewed version at home, submit it this Saturday.

If you have any questions, look us up on facebook (<http://www.facebook.com/SanJoaquinWorthogs>) or just keep up with what is happening with the Worthogs and up to date on upcoming events.
